Plains

A large area of low , flatland is called a Plain. Farming , or growing plants like rice and wheat for food , is mainly done in the plains.

Mountain

At some places, the land rises very high. Such land forms are called mountains. It is cold at the top of many mountains. Rivers and Streams start from the mountains and hills.

Hills

Hills are highlands that are smaller than mountains.

They can be pleasant and cool in summer and winter.

Valley

HEALTH TIPS

Self Care During the Holidays

1. Start with gratitude

When your mind goes towards a negative, find a way to flip that around.

2. Just say no

It's okay to say "no" sometimes. Be mindful about your own needs.

3. Get restful exercise

Try to take some time to walk outside or practice yoga.

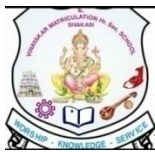

4. Reduce exposure to stimulation

During the holidays, there are more sights and smells than other times in the year. Try to detox from stimulation, maybe go without technology for a period of time.

5. Pay attention to nutrition

During the holidays, good health habits seem to go out the window. Don't deprive yourself, but try to make good decisions about food as this can positively impact your mood.
